Dear CALLERLAB Members & Subscribers,

This is a CALLERLAB Electronic News Bulletin as of October 16, 2026.

Where did the first half of October go? The leaves are turning, the sweaters are out, and fall dancing is in full swing. Whether you're visiting your local pumpkin patch, trying your luck at a new haunted house, or hitting every fall festival you can find, I hope you're enjoying the season. Here's what's new from the Home Office.

Updated Mainstream Teaching Guide

The Mainstream Dance Program Teaching Guide has been updated with administrative formatting updates and choreography corrections. Please download the current version and replace any older copies:

We Want to Hear From You!

As always, our website is your hub for the latest news, resources, and registration: callerlab.org. And if you have thoughts, a success story, or feedback on how TIPPP is going, there's a quick feedback form live on the TIPPP page: callerlab.org/tippp — pick Success Story, Suggestion, or Feedback and it goes straight to the office and the chairman of the board.

Convention Registration and Hotel Reservations

The 52nd Annual CALLERLAB Convention will be held March 21–24, 2027, at the Indianapolis Marriott East, with the Pre-Convention Caller Clinic on March 20 & 21. If you haven't yet, now is a great time to register and make your hotel reservations.

Insurance Update

CALLERLAB's liability insurance policy is currently under review with our insurance agency. During this review, certificates of insurance are delayed, and we don't yet have a timeline for when requests can be fulfilled.

Until further notice, please send all certificate requests directly to the CALLERLAB Home Office, not to the insurance company. We are tracking every request and will follow up as soon as we have an update.

We know this is frustrating, especially for those planning dances and classes, and we appreciate your patience.

Have a great weekend!
